

Federal Emergency Management Agency

§ 220.2

§ 207.5 Project management.

The State serving as grantee has primary responsibility for project management and accountability of funds as indicated in 44 CFR part 13. The State is responsible for ensuring that subgrantees meet all program requirements.

§ 207.6 Technical assistance.

(a) General. Requests from a State to FEMA for technical assistance in carrying out any activity of this grant program shall be made by the Governor or his/her designated representative to the Regional Director (reference § 202(c) of the Act).

(b) Content of request. The request for technical assistance shall indicate as specifically as possible the objectives, nature, and duration of the requested assistance; the professional disciplinary capabilities needed; the recipient agency or organization within the State; the manner in which such assistance is to be utilized; and any other information needed for a full understanding of the need for such requested assistance.

(c) State participation. The request for assistance requires participation by the State in the technical assistance process. As part of its request for such assistance, the State shall agree to facilitate coordination among FEMA and all subgrantees in need of assistance.

TEMPORARY RELOCATION

§ 220.1 Purpose.

This regulation prescribes the policies to be followed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) or any State or local government when implementing Temporary Relocation Assistance under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9601, et seq., also known as Superfund.

§ 220.2 Definitions.

Cost Share means the portion of the allowable project cost which is not derived from Federal assistance.

Evacuation means the emergency relocation of threatened individuals from an area. This activity is normally carried out by the State as part of its public health and safety responsibility.

Fair market rent means a reasonable amount to pay in the local area for the size and type of accommodations provided. (The formula is provided in § 220.11 of this part.)

Household means the residents of the pre-incident residence who are offered Temporary Relocation Assistance. It includes any authorized additions during the temporary housing period, such as children, spouses, or part-time residents who were not present at the time of the announcement, but who are expected to return during the temporary housing period.

Occupant means an eligible applicant residing in temporary housing.

Primary residence means the dwelling where the applicant normally resides during the major portion of the calendar year, or a dwelling which is required because of proximity to employment.
